

As traditional woman, we must give our husbands time to unwind from work. He's worked hard all day to provide. Make sure he comes home to a clean, drama free house with dinner ready!

Clear away the clutter

Make one last trip through the main part of the house just before your husband arrives, gathering up school books, toys, paper etc. Then run a dust cloth over the tables. Your husband will feel he has reached a haven of rest and order, and it will give you a lift too.

The goal

Try to make your home a place of peace and order where your husband can renew himself in body and spirit.

“The way you keep your house, the way you organize your time, the care you take in your personal appearance, the things you spend your money on, all speak loudly about what you believe.

The beauty of thy peace shines forth in an ordered life. A disordered life speaks loudly of disorder in the soul.”

Elisabeth Elliot

Women were created to be nurturers. We were created to nurture our husbands and children in our homes. Husbands and children need a haven of rest, peace, beauty, and joy in this tumultuous world. This is our ministry, women! We were created to create beauty for our families.
